

trainings. Based on feedback from members, staff will focus on scheduling two trainings (one on social media plus one additional topic dependent on availability of presenters and topics at the AWC conference in June), and two workshops on substantive topics. Members expressed strongest interest on VISION 2050 and Emergency Management as topics, with the caveat that additional topics may come up as the year progresses.

Councilmember Nixon said that he would be interested in a discussion of the Medic One/EMS levy and that it is important for elected officials to participate in the levy planning process. Parry noted that an information item about the Medic One/Emergency Medical Services Levy can also be found in the March 2018 PIC Packet, and that staff may bring back this topic later in the year.

Councilmember Nixon added that PIC may want to consider discussing the Puget Sound Emergency Radio Network (PSERN).

12. Informational Item

PIC Chair noted the informational item on the West Point Treatment Plant.

13. Upcoming Events

Chair Prince reported that there will be an SCA Partner Forum on Recycling Revisited on April 27, 2018 at the Mercer Island Community Center. He also noted that the next SCA Public Issues Committee meeting is on Wednesday, May 9, 2018 at Renton City Hall. The next SCA Networking Dinner will be held on Wednesday, May 30, 2018 featuring Washington State Attorney General Bob Ferguson at the Inglewood Golf & Country Club.

14. For the Good of the Order

Chair Prince asked if PIC members have anything to report for Good of the Order.

Councilmember Margeson asked if Mayor Baker, Kenmore, would share stories from his recent trip to Indiana. Mayor Baker shared that he recently met siblings for the very first time in Indiana, which was also profiled in a King 5 news story.

Dawson asked that members please be sure to RSVP for PIC meetings. She also reminded members to request a printed copy of meeting materials in advance if they would like to have a hard copy.

Councilmember James McNeal, Bothell, reported that the King County Inquest Process Review Committee Report is available online. He noted that the committee met over three months to consider changes to inquest process to review police shootings. He recommended reading the report.

Chair Prince noted that on Wednesday we remembered Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., and encouraged PIC members to continue efforts in support of inclusivity.

Dawson added that equity and inclusion are a priority for 2018 SCA President Amy Walen, and that SCA would welcome feedback on how the organization can be more inclusive.
